

Press Release

Community Foundation for the Ohio Valley, Inc.
PO Box 670
Wheeling, WV 26003

February 1, 2008
For Immediate Release

Contact: Susie Nelson
(304) 242-3144; director@cfov.org

Community Foundation for the Ohio Valley, Inc. To Hold Informational Meeting on New Scholarship Regulations

Wheeling, WV – The Community Foundation for the Ohio Valley, Inc. is pleased to announce an informational meeting for scholarship selection committees on the Pension Protection Act of 2006.

The Community Foundation for the Ohio Valley administers over 30 scholarship funds. Fund advisors are invited to attend as well as anyone who is involved with a scholarship that is not affiliated with the Community Foundation. Anyone interested in establishing a scholarship is also urged to attend. The session will feature Carolyn Duronio of the law firm Reed Smith of Pittsburgh. Ms. Duronio, an expert in legal issues regarding exempt organizations, including public charities, private foundations, and trade associations; will discuss the impact of the Pension Protection Act on scholarship funds.

This informational session is free to the public as a service provided by the Community Foundation for the Ohio Valley. The event is scheduled for 7:00 pm on Tuesday, February 12th at Wheeling Jesuit University's National Technology Transfer Center auditorium. For more information please call 304-242-3144.

For 35 years, The Community Foundation for the Ohio Valley has connected donors who care with causes that matter by making grants to organizations working to improve the quality of life in the Upper Ohio Valley. With assets of more than $24 million, the Foundation assisted in making more than $1,500,000 in grants last year. From strengthening community schools to assisting local art programs, from building health centers to helping lives affected by violence or natural disasters, the Foundation continues to enhance our region. To learn more, please visit the Foundation online at www.cfov.org.

– end –