

CHEVRON COMMUNITY FUND GUIDELINES

The Chevron Community Fund was created by Chevron to direct philanthropic resources to the needs of the communities where the company conducts business. The Chevron Community Fund is held at the Community Foundation for the Ohio Valley. Non-profit organizations in or serving Marshall County, WV may apply.

Funding Priorities Include:

Funding is focused on, but is not limited to the following areas:

Basic human needs (enhance capacity in local health care)

STEM education (improve access to quality general education and quality STEM education)

Workforce Development (develop the local workforce and advance vocational training) in Marshall County, WV.

Other funding areas may be considered. Chevron does not consider grants which include requests for salaries or capital campaigns.

Amount of Request:

Requests of up to $10,000 will be considered.

Review Process:

Applications will be submitted through CFOV's online grants management system. Grant award decisions are made by the Chevron Community Fund Grantmaking Committee. Information concerning the status of grants solicited from other foundations in the past twelve-month period for all organizational purposes (indicating the name of each foundation; amount requested; approved or declined); and listing of the organization's officers and directors, their primary occupations and the responsibilities to the organization. Interviews may be necessary for additional information and confirmation.

Criteria:

Award approval is based on the following criteria: capacity for success; need for continued funding; quality of request; direct benefit to Marshall County, West Virginia; community support, and amount of additional funding needed for project completion. Grantees must take a year (12 months) off after receiving a grant to allow for diversity in funding. A Final Grant Report must also be on file to be considered for future grants.
