

Edwin “Bud” Weigle Memorial Trade School Scholarship

Established in memory of Edwin “Bud” Weigle, who proudly served Tyler County Commissioner for over twenty years. He served on the Board of Directors for the Tyler County Senior Center, OEM, Solid Waste Authority, Planning Commission, Tyler County Development Authority, 911, Ohio River Sweep, Angus Association, Farm Bureau, Tyler County Fair Board and Valley Grange #519. Bud took a leadership role in the Tyler County Fair and Harvest Festival, and helped build the Tyler County Speedway.

Bud was dedicated to success through hard work and the development of special skills and knowledge, “to get things done the right way.” He advocated and supported technical skills training for young people who were going out into the workforce of Tyler County and West Virginia. Bud believed the future success of many of our youth depends on developing strong technical vocational skills. This scholarship makes his dream a reality.

The Edwin “Bud” Weigle Memorial Trade School Scholarship will be awarded to a graduating senior of Tyler Consolidated High School possessing the characteristics that Bud exemplified: outstanding work ethic, responsible citizenship, trustworthiness and respect for authority.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Accepted for full-time attendance at an accredited technical or trade school
 - A graduating senior of Tyler Consolidated High School or a previous recipient of this scholarship
 - Involvement in school, church and/or community
 - Evidence of employment or volunteer work

Personal Essay

On a separate sheet of paper, please take the time to prepare a well-developed, well-written, grammatically correct personal essay. The essay should be no more than two typed pages.

Your essay should describe your most meaningful school, church, and/or community involvement; also address your career goals and how receiving this scholarship would make the goals a reality.

In general, there is no “correct” way to develop and prepare this essay. In writing about something that matters to you, you will convey a sense of yourself that will provide invaluable information during the evaluation process.

I, the student, completed this application and certify that all information contained within is correct and true to the best of my knowledge.
