Tikkun Olam Scholarship of Temple Beth Israel of Steubenville

One of the central tenets of Judaism is that of Tikkun Olam, healing a broken world. This principle transcends religion and is an appropriate goal for all persons, regardless of faith. Temple Beth Israel of Steubenville has established this scholarship to support students pursuing a field of study that will allow them to enter a healing profession. Students must be planning to go into a field that will contribute to their one-on-one participation in a “healing” occupation (medicine, social work, counseling, education, etc). A cumulative GPA of at least 3.2 is required and the applicant must show financial need. A letter of recommendation that speaks to the applicant’s leadership and community involvement is also required.

Award: Four scholarships will be awarded each year to one graduating senior at each of the following high schools: Steubenville High School, Indian Creek High School, Weir High School and Brooke High School. Amounts will vary.

Deadline: February 17, 2021

Recommendation Letter
Signed and sealed letter must accompany this application.
Name: ________________________________________________________________
Relationship: _____________________________________________________________________

When selecting someone to complete your recommendation, select someone who will be thorough in the review of your character. Select someone who knows you well and will be able to give a candid and unbiased evaluation. Your recommendation must be completed by someone other than your parents, immediate family or school counselors.

The evaluator should also provide a brief statement as to why he or she thinks you are most deserving of the scholarship, being mindful of the intention of this scholarship (those honoring the tenet of Tikkun Olam)

Personal Essay
Please take the time to prepare a well-developed, well-written, grammatically correct personal essay. The essay should be no more than two typed pages.

Topic: Describe your goals, include why you are applying for this scholarship and how you plan to apply the principle of Tikkun Olam.

In general, there is no “correct” way to develop and prepare this essay. In writing about something that matters to you, you will convey a sense of yourself that will provide invaluable information during the evaluation process.

I, the student, completed this application and certify that all information contained within is correct and true to the best of my knowledge.
