

The Glenda K Follett Memorial Scholarship was established in memory of Ms. Glenda K Follett by her family. Ms. Follett spent her entire teaching career at Short Line Elementary School. Her life was dedicated to educating youth both inside and outside the classroom. This scholarship will be awarded to one deserving graduating senior from Valley High School who aspires to pursue a degree in education from an institution of higher learning (junior college, college, university). Applicant's cumulative GPA must be a 3.0 or higher.

Application Deadline: February 23, 2022 (Please return to the guidance department)
